DIVORCES FROM THE MICHIGAN COURT OF CHANCERY, 2ND CIRCUIT, 1836–1847

Abstracted by Barbara Snow

The Michigan Court of Chancery was created July 4, 1836. It was abolished March 1, 1847, when jurisdiction in matters of equity was transferred to the circuit courts.[1] The state was divided into three jurisdictions; those in what was then the 2nd Circuit were Monroe, Lenawee, Washtenaw, Oakland, Saginaw, Jackson and Hillsdale. Chancery cases for these counties were considered in Ann Arbor the 3rd Monday in December.[2]

The Court of Chancery exercised jurisdiction over a variety of civil matters which could only be resolved by a court of equity, including questions of property, guardianship and wills and divorce. This article presents abstracts of the divorce records of the cases heard by the court.

The Law

In 1836 Michigan law allowed divorce for adultery, impotence, extreme cruelty, willful desertion for more than five years and failure of the husband to support the wife and family. The first two causes—adultery and impotence—were sufficient for an absolute divorce (divorce a vinculo matrimonii.) For extreme cruelty, desertion and failure to support, the court was authorized to order a divorce a mensa et thoro (a divorce from bed and board) or an absolute divorce, at its discretion. A divorce from bed and board relieved the woman from the dangers of living with a violent husband but the husband remained responsible for her debts. The couple remained married and could not remarry. The petitioner must have been a resident of Michigan for three years. The law specifically forbade collusion; the facts of the cases had to stand on their own merit.[3] In 1837 the residency requirement was shortened to two years and a prison sentence of more than three years was added to the causes that justified divorce.[4]

The Procedure

All divorces start with a petition alleging misconduct sufficient to warrant a divorce according to Michigan law. The person initiating the divorce will be referred to as the petitioner or complainant. Sometimes the suit asks for other redress, for example an injunction preventing the spouse from taking a certain action. A subpoena or summons is issued to the spouse (now the defendant) notifying him or her of the suit and requiring a court appearance. The spouse might then enter a response or ignore the summons. If there is no response, the petition is taken as though confessed; if there is a response, it is called an answer and the petitioner's response to that answer is called a replication. Even if the petition is taken as confessed, evidence and testimony must be submitted to an assistant, called a master in chancery, for review. Once satisfied as to the truth of the petition and the absence of collusion, the master issues a report to the chancellor, who then makes his judgment.

REV. FRIEDRICH SCHMID'S BAPTISMAL RECORDS, 1847–1875, WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN
(Part Seventeen)

Translated & transcribed by Rob and Cyndy Steward, 2018

The original records of Rev. Friedrich Schmid are currently housed and may be accessed in The Michigan Historical Collections, Bentley Historical Library, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Please note that the handwriting of Rev. Schmid is not easily deciphered, in part due to his penmanship. The records contain entries written in old German script and some using English script. In addition, the pages in his records are not numbered. It is our understanding that he kept notes as he traveled and then entered them into his record books when he returned home. This may explain that while the records are fairly complete there are some gaps or omissions.

We have maintained the spelling Rev. Schmid used in the case of names. Items enclosed in parentheses are usually comments or notes of the translators or indicate alternate spellings. The term "geb." in relation to a female name, refers to "born as" or maiden name. A "+" at the beginning or end of a line indicates the person is deceased. "Unehl." indicates that the parents were not married to each other at the time of the baptism. A "-?-" indicates the specific entry was illegible.

Rev. Schmid's Baptismal Records are in column format as follows:
(Left hand pages – a.) "Chronological Number" of the child for that particular year; Name of Child; Parents Names; Place; Birth Date.
(Right hand pages – b.) Baptismal Date and Place; Sponsors Names (sometimes marital status or relationship of the sponsors are listed).
Columns with no entry or missing information are indicated by three hyphens (---).

ZION LUTHERAN CHURCH CONFIRMATIONS 1897–1898, ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN

Abstracted by Judi Bornemeier

The following is an abstract of the confirmations for the years 1897–1898 recorded in a Zion Lutheran Church, Ann Arbor, Michigan record book labeled 1894–1924 Baptisms, Confirmation, Marriages, Funerals. The book is part of the Zion Lutheran Church Ann Arbor, Michigan Records, 1833–1981 collection at the Bentley Historical Library, University of Michigan and these confirmation records were abstracted and printed with permission from Bentley Historical Library as well as Zion Lutheran Church. Column headings in the book are in German but have been translated to English for this abstract, other entries in German remain as written. For the confirmation years 1897–1898, the birthplace was most often left blank and parent names were not entered. The abstract maintains the recorded spelling of names and places. A "+" by the name was used by the church to indicate the person is deceased.

POLL LISTS, SALEM TOWNSHIP, WASHTENAW COUNTY, MICHIGAN, 1837

Transcribed by Nancy H. Krohn

Among the earliest extant poll lists for Washtenaw County are two 1837 lists for Salem Township found in the Washtenaw County, Michigan records at Bentley Historical Library, University of Michigan and are printed courtesy of the library. Michigan achieved statehood on January 26, 1837 and these elections were held later that year. On August 21st and 22nd, representatives to Congress were elected while representatives to the state legislature, state officers and various county officers were elected on November 6th and 7th.

The August list has 187 names and the November list has 226. The names of the clerks do not appear on either list. The original lists were ordinally numbered with the given name followed by surname. For ease of searching, the two lists are combined and sorted alphabetically by surname. Spelling remains as found on the original.

GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY OF WASHTENAW COUNTY WILL REACH 45th ANNIVERSARY IN 2019

By Carol Uhal

This spring the Genealogical Society of Washtenaw County (GSWC) will reach its milestone 45th anniversary. Founded in 1974 as an off-shoot of the Washtenaw County Historical Society, GSWC adapted its first by-laws in April of that year. Membership in the Michigan Genealogical Council was granted in May and officers were elected in June. The first officers elected were: Ralph Muncy, president; Polly Bender, secretary-treasurer; Harold Jones, Margaret Sias, and Marguerite Lambert as members-at-large.

GSWC was founded with the mission and purpose to:

- Assist members in genealogical studies
- Encourage the collection and preservation of family and public records
- Promote the exchange of genealogical information

The early growth of the Society was guided by its charter members whose vision laid the groundwork for 45 years of success. As we reflect on the Society's history, let us remember our founders with gratitude for their efforts.
